The Secret Things

The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may follow all the words of this law. (Deut. 29:29 NIV)

There are secret things. Some things will not be known. At least, not in this life. We will have questions that will go unanswered.

So God has not told us everything. But, His divine power has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. (2 Pet. 1:3 NIV)

Perhaps that is one of the reasons Paul will warn the Corinthians and us to be careful that we do not go beyond what is written. That is our challenge and aim. Strive to stay with what God has said. Take care not to fall short of it by dismissing the things we wish were not said. While also making sure we do not go beyond what God has said and add to his word the things we wish he had said.

The secret things belong to God. But what he has revealed belong to us so we may follow all of his words.

Last week our teens and other members of Riverchase helped create decorations and props for VBS. Thanks to everyone who came out to help!

Lost Puppy

There were signs in our neighborhood for a lost puppy. When we saw it we felt bad because we have 3 dogs and a cat. My kids were looking as we drove through the neighborhood. It had already been lost for 2 days. We knew the chances of us finding it were small. We've seen foxes, hawks, and an occasional big mean dog in our neighborhood, so we were worried and prayed that the puppy would be found.

It got me thinking about people. Knowing the dangers of the world we live in and of the judgement to come, how zealous am I to search for lost souls? Knowing the eternal punishment that awaits all who are from God, what are my daily efforts to bring them to God? There are many reasons why we ignore certain things throughout the day, but I believe this needs to be in our minds. Do you know of a lost person? Someone you care about? Someone you think needs God? We can work together in bringing them back. We can try together to go look for them. Don't let a day go by that you don't pray for lost souls! Pray that God will send workers, open doors, and that God will strengthen you to be a rescuer of souls.

Sympathy

Our sympathy is extended to Phyllis Gibson in the passing of her husband and our dear brother, John Gibson. There are no arrangements at this time.

Outreach

Matthew 28:19-20 (ESV) Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

The Riverchase church is blessed to have a long history of significant impact in many mission efforts. God truly has blessed. However, "Go therefore" includes our own communities. The Elders are seeking new local outreach and evangelistic efforts. We ask that you also prayerfully consider how the Riverchase church can better share the Good News and serve our nearby communities.

Please plan to submit your written local outreach-evangelism ideas to an Elder and / or attend a meeting Sunday, June 16, 4:30 p.m. in Room 154. We sincerely look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Riverchase family,

Thank you for all you did to love and support us during Diane's recent surgery and hospitalization. The prayers, meals, cards , and help meant so much to us.

We thank you too for continuing to keep Matt and Amanda in your prayers. It's a long, difficult season, but God continues to supply their every need and they are trusting Him.

Much love,
Mark and Diane Snow
