Dilly

The phrase “Dilly, Dilly” has become quite popular due to its commercial use.

I’ve even had a couple of our members who are trying their best to get me to use the phrase in a sermon. They have been without success thus far.

But I heard something on the radio this morning, and I had to check it out for myself. It turns out the Texas Rangers baseball team is adding a new item to their concessions menu this year. It is called the “Dilly Dog.”

The Dilly Dog is a dill pickle which has been cored and stuffed with a wiener (hot dog, if you don’t get wiener). It is then breaded and fried like a corn dog. Which raises the question, if you go to a Rangers game and ask for a “Dilly Dilly” are you actually ordering two Dilly Dogs?

All of this silliness to make a point about the meaning of words. What does “dilly” mean? Webster says it has an old meaning of “diligence”, with a more current meaning of “delightful.” The folks who wrote the commercial said they were using it in the sense of “cheers.”

A more frequent answer to its meaning seems to be, “it means whatever you want it to mean.” That is actually true with many of our words. They are defined according to popular usage. So words are constantly changing meanings depending on how we use the words. For example, how would you define these words: mouse, bat, ball, base, etc.?

But when God writes a book, the Bible, we need to be careful to learn the meaning He intended for the words He used. God did not write a book that means whatever you want it to mean. He wrote a book to reveal Himself and His will for us. We need to make sure we handle the words in it with great care.

New Beginnings

25 But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

26 In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans.

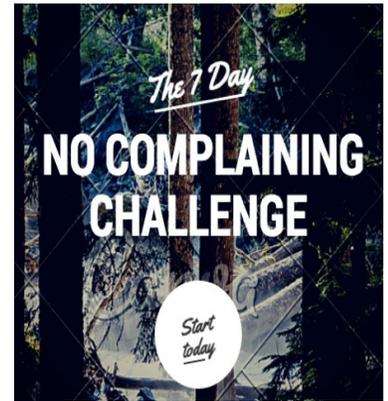

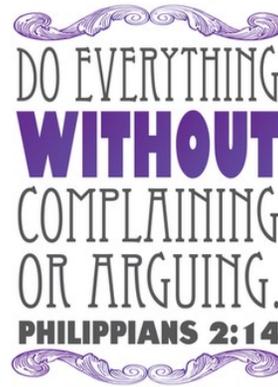

27 And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people in accordance with the will of God.

28 And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. Romans 8:25-28 NIV

As we enter Spring, we think of new beginnings. The grass grows again, flowers bloom and the world emerges after spending much time indoors during the Winter season. For me personally, Spring means the beginning of another busy soccer season as the coach of my son, Jonas', soccer team. We all seem to be busy this time of year, and we are anxious to either start something new or renew past passions or goals.

As a church, Riverchase is on the cusp of a new beginning as we search for a new children's minister. Our elders, ministers and deacons believe in the importance of this ministry and fully support it. Our children are vitally important to us, and we all want them to come to know Christ in a personal way that will guide them through the rest of their lives. In Romans, Paul speaks of the hope we have. We can't see it yet, but we patiently wait for what God has in store for us. He tells us that the Holy Spirit helps us. God searches our hearts and works for our good if we love Him and seek out His purposes.

On behalf of our elders, ministers and deacons, I would like to ask you to keep diligently praying for us as we seek out God's purposes, and we keep working towards hiring the new children's minister that God has prepared for the Riverchase Church of Christ. Pray that our hearts will be pure as we continue to search and that we would always seek God's purposes above all others. We are confident that the Holy Spirit is faithfully working throughout this process, and we anxiously anticipate the good that God has planned for the future of his church at Riverchase.

NO COMPLAINING ZONE!

Don't complain about things you're not willing to change.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed--not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence--continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, <sup>13</sup> for it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose. <sup>14</sup> Do everything without grumbling or arguing, <sup>15</sup> so that you may become blameless and pure, "children of God without fault in a warped and crooked generation." Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky <sup>16</sup> as you hold firmly to the word of life. (Phi 2:12-16 NIV)

How would you do with a 7 day "No Complaining, Arguing, or Grumbling" Challenge? We aren't the only ones that struggle with this, and Paul recognized and addressed the dangers that come from it. The end goal is that we can become BLAMELESS & PURE.

For today, Smile when challenges come your way, and then try it again tomorrow. Be a Shining Star!! You can do this - One moment at a time.

Great Job!

Luke 17:10 "So you too, when you do all the things which are commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy slaves; we have done only that which we ought to have done.'" (NASB)

A few weeks ago, my wife went to see her family in California. She left me in charge of my two oldest children. One thing she told us before she left was "Keep the house clean. I cleaned it so please leave it the same way when I get back home." For two weeks we had to pick up after ourselves, wash our dishes, put our laundry up and take care of the pets. When she got home, she was happy to see that the house was clean. The first thing she said was, "good job". I felt proud, I felt that I had accomplished something important. I did what she asked for, and I kept my promise to do so. This is something I need to be doing all the time!

The verse above reminds me that as a Christian, I have duties to perform, I have commandments to obey, and I am here in this world to serve God's people, not the other way around. I need to serve the brethren, not because I am a preacher or a deacon or an elder. I need to do it, because I am a Christian. When we do that, we do what is required of us. I look forward when my Lord hopefully will tell me, "good job".

-David
