Daughter, be of good comfort; thy

4 Judas the brother of James, and Simon the Cananite;
5 and Judas Iscariot, which betrayed him.
6 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.
7 He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned.
8 And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils, they shall take up serpents, and shall drink deadly venoms, and shall not be hurt: they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall be healed.
9 But when they persecute you, and shall take away your cities and your country, say ye thus, Blessed be they that persecute and hate us, for they shall be rewarded.
10 Whoso shall smite thee on the cheek, turn to him the other also: and whoso shall take away thy coat, let him have thy doublet also.
11 Whosoever will be the first, shall be last, and the last shall be first: but whosoever shall serve, shall be Son of man.
12 But whosoever shall offend one of these little ones, which are of faith, he shall offend against heaven, which receiveth such as offend against these little ones.
13 Woe be to that man, which shall offend one of these little ones, which are of faith: it had been better for him, that he had cast a millstone into the sea, and had been drowned, rather than that he should offend one of these little ones, which are of faith.
14 Therefore whoso shall offend one of these little ones, which are of faith, he shall be damned: woe be to that man, which shall offend one of these little ones, which are of faith.

6 But beware of men: for they will kill the body, and cannot kill the soul: but rather will they hate you, because ye have hated their name, and have despised them.
7 And when ye shall have sent forth your brethren into the cities, say unto them, Peace be to you.
8 And whosoever shall receive you, he shall receive me, and he that receiveth me, he receiveth him that sent me.
9 And when ye shall have sent forth your brethren, flee into the cities, and say unto the rulers, We beseech thee, send us here, for we have prophets and scribes, which desire to hear of thee.
10 And when thou shalt have sent them, say unto them, Peace be to you.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.
21 ¶ And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child; and the children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.
22 And he that shall be hated of all men for my name's sake, shall be saved.
23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.
4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?
5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?
6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.
7 And he arose, and departed to his house.
8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.
9 ¶ And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:
21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.
22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.
23 ¶ And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise,
24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed

Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles. ST. MATTHEW, 10.

Anno DOMINI 31.
1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles, enabling them with power to do miracles, & give them their charge, teacheth them, & cometh forth them against persecutions; & promiseth a blessing to those that receive them.
AND when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.
2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;
3 Phillip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbeus the surnamed Thaddeus;
4 Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.
5 And Jesus said unto them, Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: therefore shall ye be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.
6 But beware of men: for they will kill the body, and cannot kill the soul: but rather will they hate you, and will kill you, because ye are against them.
7 And whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, shall save it.
8 For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? for even the heathen so do. But if ye love them that hate you, and persecute you, and shall say ye are the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he so loveth them that hate him, and persecute him, and shall send down angels, and shall gather up his elect, and shall deliver them.
9 And whosoever will be a disciple of mine, he must deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
10 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, shall save it.
11 For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? for even the heathen so do. But if ye love them that hate you, and persecute you, and shall say ye are the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he so loveth them that hate him, and persecute him, and shall send down angels, and shall gather up his elect, and shall deliver them.
12 And whosoever will be a disciple of mine, he must deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
13 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, shall save it.
14 For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? for even the heathen so do. But if ye love them that hate you, and persecute you, and shall say ye are the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he so loveth them that hate him, and persecute him, and shall send down angels, and shall gather up his elect, and shall deliver them.
